The Law Regulating Newspapers and Periodicals.

1 Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscriptions

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their papers the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid, the subscribers are responsible for all the numbers sent.

3 If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their papers from the office to which they are directed, they are held responsible till they have settled their bills, and ordered their papers discontinued.

4 The Courts have decided that a refusal to take a newspaper or periodical from the Post Office with or notifying the publisher and the payment of all arrearages, is prima facie evidence of fraud.

5 Subscribers to newspapers or periodicals removing are liable to pay so long as the paper or periodical may be sent to the residence of the party at the time of subscription unless notice is sent of such removal to the publication office.

American & Foreign Patents

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of thereof 3 Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837)

78 Stat Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, as well as in England, France, and other foreign countries Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents executed on the most liberal terms, and with despatch Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar Assignments recorded at Washington

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have unsurpassed facilities for securing Patents of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by that immeasurably superior to any which can be offered elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber and no success in the long run is more certain and abiding He would add that he has a right reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office on the land are the charges for professional services more moderate The unusual facilities for subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able by advice and opinion, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All necessity for a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse" CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, or more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office

EDWARD BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

"Mr R. H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending Such an instance of success is unparalleled in my experience, and I have no hesitation in recommending all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

MICHIGAN PINE LANDS.

The St Mary a Ship Canal Company will offer AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

On TUESDAY, the 17th of June next,

AT EAST SAGINAW,

All its lands upon the Saginaw River and its tributaries covering nearly

100,000 ACRES

Of the best Pine Lands in the State These Lands will be sold in parcels to suit purchasers, and on such terms as will be made known at the time of sale

There are on the Saginaw River between Saginaw City and Bay City—a distance of fifteen miles—forty two saw mills, some of which are large, and can be rented The principal part of the stumpage is very large, often averaging fifty per cent or a quarter a log.

The Valley of the Saginaw abounds not only in pine but also in hard wood of the best quality which is rapidly coming into demand for the manufacture of furniture, &c.

There are now several large tracts of farming lands of excellent quality to be sold at low prices

In addition to all the advantages it is now demonstrated that the climate of the Saginaw Valley is the most healthy in the United States It is now about fifteen months since the manufacture of salt was begun

There are now seven manufactories in operation, yielding a daily product of 50 barrels, and there are twenty one companies more that have bought their ground and are making preparations to manufacture Each of these Salt works are largely increasing the demand not only for staves but also for wood

Sensible men need only be told that in part of the Western country will be the scene of popular and the greatest real estate be so rapid, as in this Valley If the sale does not take place on the day named, it will be continued from day to day until it does take place

Also the Company will offer at auction on the first day of the sale, all the Mackinaw Island on Lake Michigan, containing twenty thousand acres all situated upon the water front the Mackinaw Straits, large quantities of timber being upon the Island.

The quantity of pine land to be sold will be about one hundred thousand acres

There are also many saw mills near the mouth of the river Au Sable, one of which vessels can load The pine upon the west branch of the Au Sable is of excellent quality, and especially adapted for shipping, timber being cut and put into the water in the winter season, and especially adapted for shipping, timber being cut and put into the water in the winter season, and especially adapted for shipping, timber being cut and put into the water in the winter season

The Union Progress in Virginia.

The retreat of the rebel army from their entrenchments at and near Yorktown, and their flight towards Richmond, with the abandonment of a large portion of their heavy ordnance and the loss of immense quantities of munitions and supplies, has well nigh settled the fate of the rebellion so far as the great States of Virginia, North and South Carolina are concerned With McDowell and Banks ready to strike upon their right flank, and McClellan pressing upon their rear, they have apparently no resource but to utterly abandon the Ancient Dominion, and the capital of their Confederacy, with their great and only naval station at Norfolk, and pass into the Gulf States with the forlorn hope of being able to form a junction with the army of the Southwest, under Beauregard An attempt may be made to stand in the vicinity of Richmond, but according to present appearances it will be but for a brief period The Federal armies are closing around them—and with the demoralized and disheartened condition in which the rebel troops must apparently be, they can make but a faint resistance Soon now appear to be the probabilities of the war in the Atlantic States of the Confederacy And no less desperate are the prospects of the Confederacy in the Mississippi Valley Well may the friends of the Union take hope that the great rebellion is near its end.

General McClellan designed that all the divisions of the army of the Potomac should cooperate and make the thing a certainty This plan was peremptorily interfered with by Secretary Stanton, its unity destroyed and the great crowning success which was virtually to end the war, disastrously perilled, if not completely defeated It is a terrible responsibility which the Secretary has thus assumed, and he will be held accountable for it

—Portland Argus

Will the Argus please give us its authority for saying that Secretary Stanton "peremptorily interfered with General McClellan's plan?" —also precisely how and in what manner he thus interfered? There has been quite enough of these general and vague charges against high officers of the Administration—but we have seen no paper as yet which has ventured to go into particulars, and give any tangible authority for such accusations, beyond rumor or the allegations of some gossipping or malignant Washington correspondent We should like, now, to have the Argus give us something more reliable

It has not perhaps struck the papers which are so flippant with these charges against the War Department, that they are in fact charges against the President himself If General McClellan has been interfered with, it cannot have been done without the sanction or permission of Abraham Lincoln He is commander in-chief of the Union armies, and, if any important changes have been made, or any serious withdrawal of troops ordered by Secretary Stanton, it must have been with the consent of the President. If there has been a "conspiracy," (as the democratic papers are constantly asserting) to prevent the success of General McClellan by withholding men and means, it can hardly have been carried out in action without the knowledge of the Commander in-Chief.

Several of the New York papers speak of a change of the plan of attack upon the Yorktown peninsula being made without General McClellan's consent or knowledge, but we have seen no official statement of the fact, and believe it to be mere surmise on the part of those papers It is scarcely credible that the administration would change the plan of an important campaign without consultation with the commanding general

A railway to run under the city of London for a distance of four and a half miles is now being built, and will be opened for traffic about the middle of June On the occasion of a trip recently made through a portion of its length the air was found to be perfectly free from all unpleasantness and dampness The locomotives condense their own steam and consume their smoke, so that neither gas nor vapor is perceptible The carriages will be well ventilated lighted with portable gas and quite roomy

Much ignorance prevails as to the law on the subject of bounty and pensions Soldiers who have served for a few weeks and been discharged for one cause or another sometimes imagine they can sell their discharge and transfer a claim to bounty This is a mistake The bounty of $100 is only payable to those who serve for the war, If a soldier be killed in battle, his widow or heirs are entitled to the bounty and pay then due. If a soldier be wounded and discharged for disability, he is entitled to a pension, according to the degree of disability, but in no case can a soldier sell his discharge

The Great Eastern steamship is expected to arrive in New York again in a few days, She is announced to sail from that port for Liverpool on the 31st of May Fare in first cabin from $95 to $135 See advertisement

Sir Edmund Head, late Governor General of Canada, has refused the governorship of Bombay, with a salary of £12 500 sterling per annum, in consequence of the climate not being likely to agree with Lady Head

Our Consul at Geneva writes that during the six months he has been there he has received no less than a thousand applications to enter our army, from Italian soldiers who wish to fight for liberty in America

Lewis Downing, Esq, a well known coach builder of Concord, has had in contemplation for some months a journey to California but expressed a determination not to depart before he was satisfied the back bone of the rebellion was broken He sailed on receipt of the news that New Orleans was in Union hands

THE TRUTH TOLD IN MEMPHIS The New York Herald has a despatch from Washington which says—

A copy of the Memphis Argus just received here, in an editorial article reiterates the statement that Beauregard is evacuating Corinth — The editor boldly acknowledges that the rebels sustained a defeat at the late battle of Pittsburg Landing, and says the people of the South might as well relinquish all hopes of success, and yield a quiet submission to the National Government

COMMANDER HENRY K THATCHER

To the Editor of the N Y Tribune

SIR —I have this evening received a letter giving me the gratifying assurance that an error was unintentionally made by a reporter of the press, in placing the name of Commander Thatcher on the list of officers who left the United States Navy and joined that of the insurgents, a copy of which letter I forward you and ask, as a matter of justice to him and his numerous friends that it be published in the Tribune

The original mistake was not with you, but your paper has so extensive a circulation, that very serious injury may occur unless it is refuted

I am authorized by Secretary Welles, through the Hon John H Rice, Member of the House for this District, to publish this letter in the Tribune

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,

GEO A THATCHER

Bangor, Me, April 24, 1862

NAVY DEPARTMENT
April 19 1862

SIR —I have received your communication of the 11th inst, in reference to a list said to have been published in the Tribune at New York, on the 3d of March last, purporting to be the names of the officers who deserted the Navy of the United States and joined the navy of the insurgents, which list contains the name of Commander Henry K Thatcher Great injustice was unintentionally done by a reporter of the press, in placing the name of Commander Thatcher on the list, and publishing him as a deserter to the Rebel cause A correction of the error was made immediately on its being discovered, by the newspaper in Washington which was the first to publish it

The Department, however, takes great pleasure in stating to you that the name of Commander Thatcher is not in the original list captured at Roanoke, and in saying further that he is at present upholding the honor and flag of his country, and in command of the United States sloop of war Constellation in the Mediterranean

I am, respectfully, your obedient servant

GIDEON WELLES

Geo A Thatcher, Bangor, Me.

HOW THE REBELS FLED AT YORKTOWN A Baltimore letter of the 5th says—

The retreat of the rebels appears to have been precipitate They commenced dismounting and carrying their guns back to Williamsburg four days ago Wagons have been engaged in transporting their ammunition, provisions and camp equippage for over a week past Their sick and wounded numbering over two thousand five hundred, were sent to Richmond ten days ago

In the house where Magruder had slept the night before the evacuation, I found several letters lying unfolded on a table Two of them were directed to General McClellan, one to "the first Yankee who comes," and one to "Abe Lincoln" The following are the contents of one addressed to General McClellan—

'General McClellan—You will be surprised to hear of our departure at this stage of the game, leaving you in possession of this worthless town, but the fact is, McClellan, we have other engagements to attend to, and we can't wait any longer Our boys are getting sick of this damned place, and the hospital likewise; so good bye for a little while

Adjutant TERRY, C S A M"

In the inside entrenchments were wooden guns projecting from the embrasures Fort Magruder, which was built strong works to reduce, was found to be a weak place. Its inside works were sand bags piled up, with logs of wood painted black on the end

The total force of the rebels, according to papers found at the headquarters of General Magruder, was less than seventy-five thousand.

JOB WORK. We are prepared to execute job work of all kinds at remarkably low prices and in the neatest style.

☞ Copies of the Daily Whig—price three cents—for sale at our counting-room.

☞ Our Carriers are not allowed to sell papers while on their routes

*,*Subscriptions for a less time than three months 60 cents per month.

TO ADVERTISERS—Advertisers will do well to recollect that the circulation of the Daily Whig and Courier is LARGER than that of any Daily in the State of Maine.

CORRECTION —In the dispatch of yesterday announcing the appointment of Judge Walton, an error occurred in the name. It was printed Charles H, instead of Charles W Walton.

NEW MAP OF MAINE. The new and splendid Map of Maine, which has been in preparation by Messrs J Chace & Co, of Portland, has just been published, and is now in the market, and the agents for Bangor and this part of the State are now engaged in delivering the subscribers' copies. It is the largest, most accurate, and altogether the most minute map of the State yet published. It is drawn from the actual surveys made by the United States Coast Survey, the State Land Surveys, the New Brunswick Government Surveys, and special surveys made by those accomplished civil engineers, Messrs H F Walling and J Chace, Jr Sanborn & Carter and Bailey & Noyes, of Portland, are associated with Mr Chace in the publication The map covers a surface of nearly five feet square, and exhibits every city, town, plantation and township in the State upon a scale of only five miles to the inch, with all the lines of the principal roads and the positions of the churches, school houses, mills, &c, indicated It has also plans of the principal cities and villages of the State upon a scale of 80 rods to an inch, and a map of the United States and contiguous British provinces, on a small scale This map has been highly approved by all who have examined it, and we have no doubt will be eminently satisfactory to subscribers and purchasers Accompanying the map is a full Business Directory of the subscribers, with valuable statistics, and a brief description of the State, prepared by Wm Willis, Esq, of Portland

☞ Captain H Clay Wood, who has been recruiting here for the 11th U S Infantry, for some weeks past, will leave the city in a few days—having been ordered to report to General Fremont for a position upon his staff

☞ Auction sale of horse carts, buggy wagon, chestnut trees, &c, by R S Prescott, in West Market Square to morrow (Saturday), at 10 o'clock, A M Good chance for bargains

☞ Another explosion at the Buckfield powder works, apparently without cause, occurred on Friday last The mills were at work for government and the Portland Advertiser says there are suspicions (it hopes unfounded) that these explosions have been the work of secession traitors

☞ By the recent ice freshet, about 100 steamers, dredges, schooners, scows, and barges were driven out of the river St Charles (Sorel) doing damage to the extent of over £30,000.— Among those driven out was the Arabian, whose upper works are considerably injured She will be obliged to go to Quebec for repairs

☞ The town of Saco, by a vote of 212 to 66, has determined to purchase a steam fire engine

☞ On Monday last, Capt S G Archer, Co I 13th regiment left Augusta for Ship Island with sixty soldiers recently in hospital

☞ The second battery (Tillson s) fully armed and equipped, is near Aquia Creek

A COOL OPERATION At Portland, on Friday evening last, two men went into the furnishing establishment of Mr Alfred Dyer and while one of them attracted the attention of the occupant in the front part of the shop, the other loitered around the desk, and abstracted therefrom the pocket book of Mr Dyer, containing checks and notes to a large amount, and $160 in money

DEATHS IN MAINE REGIMENTS Among the deaths reported at Ship Island and at other points we notice the following belonging to Maine regiments F W Whitney, Co E, 1st Cavalry, H J H Brainard, Co B, 14th, E H Hamilton, Co B, 14th The following, all belonging to the 12th Maine, are among the deaths recently reported at Ship Island J H Andrews, Co D, Geo A Grant, Co I, Eliphalet Wilber, Co F, G H Libby, Co C, John Chase, Co G

☞ There has been a severe freshet on the upper St John river The Aroostook Herald says that a jam of ice was made above Savage island which, on the 22d of April, broke, causing the river below to rise so rapidly that all but three of twenty head of cattle grazing on the Island, were drowned The cattle belonged to Messrs Savage

☞ Women are fond of telling they hate handsome men but you may be sure that it is only to ugly men that they say so

THE WAR TIMES A day or two ago, as our little Annie was running at full speed on the sidewalk, she had a serious fall Her knees and forehead were badly bruised, and the skin grazed from her arm That night, as she was being undressed for bed, she looked pitifully at her numerous wounds and sorrowfully exclaimed to her mama—"Oh, dear! what dreadful times these war times are!"—Exchange

☞ Prentice, in remarking upon the fact that few ladies of what is called "good society" are getting married now, but that the more humble class are pairing as rapidly as ever," says It seems that the business is less brisk in silk than in calico

☞ Jeremiah Fenno, Esq, of this city, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant and Quartermaster General of the State during the absence of General J L Hodsdon Mr Fenno has for some time been employed in the Adjutant General's office

☞ Rev Wm. A Drew, formerly editor of the Gospel Banner, has issued the prospectus of a new paper to be published semi-monthly, in Portland, Boston and Hartford, and to be entitled "The New England Universalist, and Gentlemen's and Ladies' Fruit and Flower Parterre."

☞ The "earthquake" felt in Bath last week turned out to be the effect of the powder mill explosion at Gorham. Distance thirty-five miles

☞ A telegram on Monday announced the fact of the evacuation of Yorktown, and the news being confirmed by the telegram of the Bangor Daily Whig which arrived by train at eleven o'clock, a salute of thirty-one guns was fired from the State House, where the Governor and Council were in session.—Ken. Journal.

GENTLEMEN

Having noticed for years the fortunes of Tailors doing a credit business, and having myself proved that system to be utterly wrong for the retail Tailoring business, I feel compelled to adopt the CASH SYSTEM It is better for the customer who expects to pay for his garments as the amount lost by bad debts under the credit system is divided between the patrons and the patron and as the former receive it by paying as much as 20 per cent less for their garments and the latter is saved from bankruptcy Consequently I would invite all Cash paying customers to examine the Stock of Goods now on hand and see if the prices are not 20 per cent less than at any other Clothing House in the city

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

TELEGRAPHIC
TO THE
Daily Whig and Courier.

[Dispatches to the Evening Papers.]

The Nashville again Run the Blockade—General Franklin's Division Gone up York River—General Sedgwick to Follow—President Lincoln at Fortress Monroe—Beauregard Reported at Pocahontas—He has Seventy-five Thousand Troops—Monday's Fight before Williamsburg—Seven Hundred Rebels Left Dead on the Field—Federal Loss Three Hundred Killed and Seven Hundred Wounded—The Rebels Burn their Gunboats on York River.

NEW YORK, 8th

The Newbern correspondent of the New York Times writes that deserters state that the rebel steamer Nashville appeared off New Inlet on the 24th ult, and attempted to run into Wilmington She struck on the bar, and remained until the 26th, during which time she was lightened of a portion of her cargo On the 26th she passed into the river and anchored She was reported to have brought 10,000 stand of arms and 100 tons of gunpowder from Nassau The blockading vessel was cruising off the coast at the time The naval gunboats are now relieved of the necessity of longer blockading Beaufort, and would proceed to Wilmington to look after the Nashville

Fort Caswell, near Wilmington, is stated to be garrisoned by 150 men There are several rifled guns and 30 and 32 pound smooth bore guns in the armament of the fort At Smith's Island there was also a small force and a battery The fort was well supplied with ammunition

A letter, dated at headquarters, Tuesday morning states that General Franklin went up York river with his division yesterday, and I hear this morning that General Sedgwick has also embarked at Yorktown, and will join Franklin this morning They are expected to march from the York river to a place called New Kent, on the road between Williamsburg and Richmond, and thus cut off the rebels' retreat

If the rebels stand where they are, they will find themselves between two formidable armies, and will be compelled either to cut their way through one of them, or to surrender at discretion

I am inclined to think they will cross the Chickahomany river, and destroy the bridges and ferry so as to prevent pursuit This seems to be the only way in which they can hope to save any portion of their army

It is barely possible that we may have hard fighting yet, but the general opinion is that the enemy will escape in the way indicated, and that General McClellan can advance upon Richmond without any very formidable opposition

The steward of the steamer Columbia, from Havana, says the crew on a mortar boat from the Mississippi river, stated to him that a flag of truce came from New Orleans with a request to know on what terms the city should surrender The reply sent back was "An unconditional surrender"

The mortar boat, it seems, left before the capitulation was effected, but the crew stated, that in two hours after, while in sight of New Orleans, they saw Union flags displayed all over the city

The news of the fall of New Orleans at Havana created the greatest consternation among the secesh at that place

FORTRESS MONROE, 7th

President Lincoln arrived this morning He spent the day with General Wool This afternoon he visited Newport News to see General Mansfield, and have a closer view of the Merrimac, which has been lying off Craney Island all the afternoon, for the purpose, no doubt, of preventing our gunboats from running up the James river She made no attempt to come out.

BALTIMORE, 8th

The American's correspondent, under date of Yorktown, 7th, at 12 o clock, says

"As I close my letter the latest intelligence from the field of battle is that Gen McClellan has come up with the enemy about eight miles beyond Williamsburg, and after a pretty severe skirmish with his rear again put him to flight across the Chickahominy Large numbers of prisoners have been taken, including many deserters who report that they had both dig to eat but a few biscuits for forty eight hours, and when brought in, fell down in a state of exhaustion

Not less than fifty steamers are engaged in transporting the balance of our army to West Point Large numbers of prisoners are arriving at West Point, and others are being constantly brought in

On Monday the enemy took 80 of our men prisoners, and captured one of the Pennsylvania batteries, having first killed all the horses The Pennsylvanians had but a small support of infantry and were overwhelmed by a superior force of the enemy, and compelled to abandon the battery But before the close of the day this battery, with one of the enemy's, was recaptured by General McClellan The prisoners taken by the enemy were found in Williamsburg next day, engaged in attending on the wounded rebels they had left behind Their retreat was accompanied by too much confusion and haste to be troubled with prisoners

LATEST I have learned that the enemy has destroyed all the bridges across the Chickahomeny river, and that General McClellan is resting on this side. It will be remembered that the Chickamahomeny runs parallel with James river, into which it enters It is the general impression that General McClellan has now got the enemy where he wants them

CHICAGO, 7th

A special dispatch from Cairo to the Times, says a refugee from Jackson, Miss, report that Beauregard's headquarters are at Pocahontas, and not far from 75,000 troops are concentrated around him

Lovell's army, at the latest advices, was at Pachapahoc, on the Orleans and Jackson road, 50 miles north of New Orleans

BALTIMORE, 8th

The American's account of the battle on Monday, says it was a warmly contested engagement Owing to the roughness of the country, and bad condition of the roads, but a small portion of our troops could be brought into action Sickles' brigade, Gen Hooker's division, bore the great brunt of the battle and fought most valiantly, though greatly overpowered by numbers, and the superior position and earthworks of the enemy The approaches to their works were through a series of ravines and swamps, whilst the rain fell in torrents all day The men also had been laying on their arms all the night previous and were soaked with rain and chilled with cold

The battle raged from early morning until three in the afternoon, when Gen McClellan arrived with fresh troops, relieving Hooker's division, who were nearly prostrated with fatigue and exposure, whilst the third regiment of Sickles' brigade had its ranks badly thinned by the balls of the enemy They are represented as having fought with such imprudent bravery that not less than 200 were killed and wounded — After the arrival of Gen McClellan, the enemy was fiercely charged by Hancock's brigade, and were driven within their works before sightfall with heavy loss. Nearly 700 of their dead were left on the field, with many wounded, though most of the latter were carried into Williamsburg Our loss was less than 300 killed and about 700 wounded

Fort Magruder was a most extensive work, and capable of a long defence, but the enemy abandoned it early in the night, retreating in the greatest alarm and confusion A large number of wagons, munitions, and considerable store of provisions were found in the town, and the road was strewn for many miles with arms and accoutrements

A number of deserters made their escape and came within our lines, who stated that they received intelligence that large numbers of Federal troops were landing on York River above Williamsburg to flank them

[No killed or wounded from Maine given in the list.]

NEW YORK, 8th

A special dispatch dated Fortress Monroe 7th, says the rebels burnt their gunboats on York river yesterday morning We have taken many prisoners in small companies, but I can't learn of any large body having been captured Two companies of the 8th Illinois cavalry are reported captured by the enemy

Gen McClellan was struck by a piece of shell but was not injured

The opinion prevails there that if Gen Franklin's division receive reinforcements in time, a great part of the rebel army will be captured — The roads are in a very bad condition, by which our advance is greatly impeded

WASHINGTON, 8th

The Secretary of War has the following, taken from the special correspondence of the Baltimore American—

The divisions of Generals Franklin and Sedgwick numbering 20 000 men, have been landed at West Point, 20 miles above Williamsburg at the head of the river, and the division of Gen Porter is now embarking for the same destination, together with several batteries

No doubt is entertained but they will intercept and cut off the flying rebels unless they escape across James River

FORTRESS MONROE, 8

The iron clad ship of war Galena and the gunboats Aroostook and Port Royal started up James river at 6 o clock this morning They have passed Fige Point Battery

Heavy firing has been heard up the river since their departure They will cut off the river communication with the rebel army south of the Chickamahominy

Instantly after the gunboats started, the rebel tug J B White came out in front of Newport News, having left Norfolk this morning, with a crew and two citizens on board, on a mission to Tauntry Point By previous consent they ran over to Newport News, and surrendered to Gen Mansfield This is the third time they have attempted to escape, and they are now most happy individuals

Sewall's Point is evacuated The Monitor, Naugatuck and several gunboats have just left for Sewall's Point

FORTRESS MONROE, 8

To Hon Gideon Welles, Secretary of Navy

I have the honor to announce, that in the providence of God which smiles up a just cause, the squadron under Flag Officer Farragut, has been vouchsafed a glorious victory and triumph in the capture of the city of New Orleans, Forts Jackson, St Philip, Livingston and Pike, the batteries below and above New Orleans, as well as the total destruction of the enemy's gunboats, steam rams, iron clad floating batteries, fire rafts and obstructions, booms and chains

The enemy with their own hand destroyed from eight to ten millions of cotton and shipping

Our loss is 36 killed and 128 wounded The enemy lost from 1000 to 1500, besides several hundred prisoners

The way is clear and the rebel defences destroyed from the Gulf to Baton Rouge, and probably to Memphis Our flag floats over them all

I am bearer of despatches

(Signed) THEODORUS BAILEY,
Captain and Second in Command of the Attacking Force, of gunboat Cayuga

HEADQUARTERS Mountain Department,
April 8th

Hon E M Stanton, Secretary of War

General Cox telegraphs that his advance, consisting of part of the 23d Ohio, under Major Conley, occupied Giles Court House, and the narrows of New river yesterday, driving out the rebels, who were taken by surprise. A considerable quantity of commissary stores were taken, and some 20 privates made prisoners. The surprise prevented the burning of the place, as the rebels intended The citizens remain; and most of them seem loyally disposed.

He adds that the reverses of the enemy at Camp Creek increase in importance as they become more known.

[Signed] JOHN C. FREMONT,
Major General Commanding.

WASHINGTON, 8th.

Information has been received here that a cavalry reconnoissance was recently made to Culpepper Court House Seven prisoners on horseback were captured, as they were endeavoring to escape. They have been sent to Washington Our troops were favorably received by the people, but only temporarily occupied the town

Minister Adams has presented to the British Government a claim for the restoration of the ship Emily St. Pierre, the captain of which rose upon the prize crew, and conveyed her to Liverpool, after her capture by the United States fleet for violating the blockade

An order from the War Department says upon requisitions made by commanders of armies in the field, authority will be given by the Department to the Governors of the respective State to recruit regiments now in the service

LOUISVILLE, 8th

Two thoroughly reliable gentlemen, Kentuckians, who have just arrived from New Orleans report that all along the Mississippi from Memphis to New Orleans, there is one general burning of property, particularly of cotton, of which 11,700 bales were burned at New Orleans At Memphis sugar and molasses in large quantities is on the bluffs ready to be rolled into the river, and all the stock of cotton is ready to be fired on the approach of the Federal fleet

The people of the river towns are retreating inward, and destroying property all along the southern tributaries of the Mississippi, the planters in many cases applying the torch to their own cotton The rebel government has also boats running up the river destroying cotton Among the great numbers only one planter was found who objected to the burning of his cotton

A special dispatch from Cairo to the Times, says that it is reported from Pittsburg that three brigades of Gen Buell's army had seized that part of the Memphis and Charleston railroad midway between Corinth and Grand Junction, thus cutting off the rebel communication between the two points

It is also reported that a detachment of Gen Pope's army had seized the road south of Corinth

CAIRO, 8th

The hospital boat from Pittsburg Landing arrived to night

No engagement had taken place at Corinth up to yesterday noon Our forces were gradually advancing, and were on an average of three miles from the enemy's advance The latter were acting strictly on the defensive, and for three days had not sent out any reconnoitering parties

The roads are still in bad condition owing to the late heavy rains

The expedition from Hickman sent against Clay's and King's guerillas, have returned They fell in with them in the vicinity of O Brian, on the river, and after a sharp skirmish, the rebels were routed

It appears that in the first skirmish with Curtis's Neb aska horse six of our men were killed, 12 wounded and 50 captured

The steamer Desoto, from fort Wright has arrived, but brings no news

A rebel spy had been captured while endeavoring to cross the Mississippi at night in a skiff He had copies of late northern papers. He was placed in confinement

NEW YORK, 8th.

A man was arrested to-day at the banking house of Thompson & Brother, while offering a large amount of $100 counterfeit notes on the Alleghany County Bank of Pittsburg He is supposed to belong to the same gang who issued the great Shoe and Leather counterfeits

A special despatch to the Times, dated at the Headquarters of the Mountain Department, near Harrisonburg, Va, 8th states that a despatch from Fayettesvill announces that the advance of General Cox, composed of a part of the 23d Ohio under Major Conley, occupied Giles Court House and Narrows on New River, yesterday The rebels ran and did not burn the place as intended Abundant commissary stores, a Lieutenant Colonel, Major and 20 privates were captured The citizens remained and seemed loyal

The defeat of the rebels at Camp Creek was more important than was at first supposed Gen Milroy is now fighting, and Gen Schenck is advancing The particulars of these movements are forbidden

NEW MARKET Va, 8th

Yesterday afternoon the rebel pickets above Columbia bridge on the east side of the Shenandoah were driven back by detachments under Col Foster, who was subsequently ambuscaded by two rebel regiments The action lasted an hour, when Foster withdrew in good order The enemy did not pursue A company of Vermont cavalry was cut off and surrounded but escaped by swimming the river The enemy's loss is not stated except seven prisoners belong ng to the 5th Virginia and 7th Alabama regiments, which indicates that the enemy's forces was one of Ewell's brigades This morning twelve of our men were reported missing

It is reported here that a skirmish occurred yesterday near Staunton, between Milroy's advance and Edward Johnson's command The latter were repulsed and retreated.

POTTSVILLE, Pa, 8th

All is quiet, but a difficulty is apprehended to night The Philadelphia troops are at Hecksherville, guarding the works of the Forest Improvement Company There is much excitement among the miners

PHILADELPHIA, 8th

More troops and a battery proceeded to Potts this afternoon Parties have arrived from the scene and report that there is less excitement than was expected Many of the strikers were three months volunteers and are well drilled in the use of arms, but they manifest no disposition to have an encounter with the State authorities They considered themselves seriously aggrieved by the diminution of their wages. If blood should be shed, serious results are apprehended

WASHINGTON, 8th

A man was arrested here to-day for attempting to pass a hundred dollar bill on the Alleghany Bank of Pittsburg, Penn Twenty one bills of that denomination were found upon his person The notes are exceedingly well executed, and therefore a dangerous counterfeit

POTTSVILLE, Penn, 8th

The difficulty is all settled with the miners. They will return to Philadelphia in the morning The employers have agreed to pay the advance demanded

HOUSE

The Iowa contested election case was taken up It involved the question whether a member of Congress can hold his seat in Congress and a commission in the army at the same time, and refers especially to Mr Vandever, who commands a regiment

On motion of Mr Washburne of Illinois, it was postponed till the first Wednesday in December

The following was adopted

Whereas, it is reported that Robert E Scott and a man name Dulaney, citizens of Fauquier county, Va, were killed on Saturday by two soldiers—

Resolved, That the Secretary of War be requested to ascertain the facts particularly, if perpetrated by command or permission of any officer of the army, and if not, what steps have been taken to punish said soldiers

The bill organizing a territorial government in Arizona was taken up and passed The bill repeals all the laws in the organizing of Territories recognizing the relation of master and slave and prohibits slavery therein

The bill extending the eastern limits of Nevada sixty miles was passed

Mr Lovejoy of Illinois called up the bill abolishing slavery within the exclusive jurisdiction of the federal Government

The House refused, 50 to 65, to table the bill

Mr Mallory raised the point that the bill was not regularly before the House, which the Speaker overruled

Mr Lovejoy called for the previous question, when, without coming to a vote, the House adjourned

The Richmond Whig has many serious objections to the inroads of the Yankees on the "mother territory," as it designates Virginia, but one of the most decided is that they should hire foreign mercenaries—Poles, Hungarians and Germans—to subjugate the country and then to people the waste they have made Yankee perfidy, it says, has nothing worse than this, and it adds

"The devastation of war—the abolition of slavery—the chains of a bondage which might be broken by resolute resistance, leave nothing so horrible to our minds as Virginians driven from their homes, while squalin savages roam in unrestricted license, the lords of their cherished heritage

The valor of our troops and the constancy of our people will never allow such a terrible consummation; but it may be well for any whose minds may have been excited by vain hopes from compromise and submission, to remember that the Goths and Vandals are here to drive lots for our lands and take possession of our country.—Let us do or die"

An Alabama soldier was asked why he deserted, and replied that he had received a letter from his mother in Alabama, who told him that "the good old Union was the best, and that the Lord was on the side of the country for which her revolutionary father fought that we should at least conquer the rebels, and to go over to us as soon as he could" "And," said he, "I have always obeyed my mother"

MR. LINCOLN'S LATEST By special permission of the "Censor of the Press," we are allowed to mention that the President on alighting from his carriage after his late excursion, remarked that "it was all nonsense to say Virginia was dissatisfied, as he had found it a Clay State up to the hub."—Family Paper.

"Do you believe, sir, that the dead ever walk after death?" "No doubt of it, madam, I have heard the dead march."

The Providence Journal is shrewd in this inference

Savannah must be on the point of surrender ing; for we see that the Mayor and Council have voted never to give up the place

An intelligent farmer being asked if his horses were well matched, replied "Yes, they are matched first rate, one of them is willing to do all the work, and the other is willing that he should"

LENGTH OF RAILWAYS IN THE WORLD The total length of railways in the world is 69,000 miles The estimated cost is about $5,877 200,000 Nearly one half the length of lines belong to the United States, and one-fourth to Great Britain and colonies. The cost of the latter, however, is about twice that of our railroads

BY AUTHORITY.

Laws of the United States,

Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 22.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers" approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That the twentieth section of the "Act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers," approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, be and the same is hereby amended, so as to read as follows, to wit:

"Sec. 20. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall sell or exchange, give, barter, or dispose of any spirituous liquor or wine to any Indian under the charge of any Indian superintendent or Indian agent appointed by the United States, or shall introduce or attempt to introduce any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, such person, on conviction thereof before the proper district court of the United States, shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding two years, and shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars: Provided however, That it shall be a sufficient defence to any charge of introducing or attempting to introduce liquor into the Indian country, if it be proved to be done by order of the War Department, or of any officer duly authorized thereto by the War Department: And if any superintendent of Indian affairs, Indian agent or sub-agent, or commanding officer of a military post, has reason to suspect, or is informed that any white person or Indian is about to introduce or has introduced any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, in violation of the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for such superintendent, agent, sub-agent or commanding officer, to cause the boats, packages, wagons, sleds, and places of deposit of such person to be searched, and if any such liquor is found therein, the same, together with the boats, teams, wagons, and sleds used in conveying the same, and also the goods, packages, and peltries of such person, shall be seized and delivered to the proper officer, and shall be proceeded against as forfeited in the proper court, and forfeited, one half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the United States; and if such person be a trader, his license shall be revoked: and his bond put in suit. And it shall moreover be lawful for any person in the service of the United States, or employed in the Indian department, to take and destroy any ardent spirits or wine found in the Indian country, except such as may be introduced therein by the war Department. And in all cases arising under this act Indians shall be competent witnesses."

(Approved, February 13, 1862.

[PUBLIC—No. 23.]

AN ACT making an appropriation for completing the defences of Washington, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars be and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for completing the defences of Washington: Provided, That a current series of plans already in course for the objects of this act shall be first paid out of this sum: And provided further, That no part of the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in any work hereafter to be commenced.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the fifth section of the act of twenty-six thousand eighteen hundred and fifty-six, entitled "An act for the discharge from the service of minors enlisted without the consent of their parents, be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided, That hereafter no person under the age of eighteen shall be mustered into the service of the United States, and the oath of enlistment taken by the recruit shall be conclusive as to his age.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That no volunteer or militia from any State or Territory shall be mustered into the service of the United States on any terms or conditions confining the service to the limits of said State or Territory, or their vicinity beyond the number of ten thousand in the State of Missouri, and four thousand five hundred in the State of Maryland, heretofore authorized by the President of the United States or Secretary of War, to be raised in said States.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the second section of the act of the United States, approved March seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, shall be and the same is hereby so amended as to read as follows:

"Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, in time of war, if needful, in addition to the usual authority of the United States, all persons shall be liable to the draft as specified or setting as such, in or about the fortifications, encampments, posts, quarters, or barracks of the armies of the United States, or any of them, within any part of the United States which may be declared to be in a state of insurrection by proclamation of the President of the United States, shall suffer death by sentence of a general court-martial."

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the fifty-fifth article of the first section of the act of the eighteenth hundred and one, chapter twenty-six, be the same is hereby so amended as to read as follows:

"Art. 55. If any officer, Volunteer, Seaman, Marine or Soldier belonging to the armies of the United States, or employed in the service of the same, whether he be in the regular forces or militia, or employed in any part of the land or naval forces of the United States, or in the militia in actual service of the United States, or in any fortress, garrison, or quarters belonging to the United States, or on any guard, or on board any vessel, or in any other place, or on any other duty in time of war, or in case of insurrection against the government of the United States, or in case of rebellion, shall forcibly strike his superior officer, or draw or lift up any weapon or offer any violence against him, being in the execution of his office, on conviction thereof by the sentence of a court-martial, he shall suffer death, or such other punishment as by the judgment of a court-martial shall be inflicted."

(Approved, February 13, 1862.

[PUBLIC—No. 24.]

AN ACT to prohibit the "coolie trade" by American citizens in American vessels.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,

That no citizen or citizens of the United States or resident owning, chartering or having the same, or any right or interest or for any other person whatsoever, either as master, owner, charterer, shipper, consignee, factor or otherwise, is procure and ship or transport any female against her consent, or male under the age of eighteen years, to any port or place whatsoever, not within the jurisdiction of the United States, to be held to service or labor, and any citizen or resident who shall violate the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and imprisonment not exceeding one year.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any citizen or citizens of the United States, shall, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, take on board any vessel or receive or transport any such person as aforesaid, with the purpose to hold, sell or dispose of such person as a servant, he or they shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That any citizen or citizens of the United States shall, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, take on board any vessel or receive or transport any such person as aforesaid, with the purpose to hold, sell or dispose of such person as a servant, he or they shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act hereinbefore contained shall be deemed or construed to apply to or affect any free and voluntary emigration of any Chinese or Asiatic or to any vessel carrying such person as passenger on board the same: Provided, however, That a permit or certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consul or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure, containing the name of such person, and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port or place which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel, but the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent shall be first personally satisfied by or proof produced of the truth of the facts therein contained.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all the provisions of the act of Congress approved February twenty-second, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, entitled "An act to regulate the carriage of passengers in steamboats and vessels," and all the provisions of the act of Congress, approved March third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act to extend the provisions of all laws now in force relating to the carriage of passengers in merchant vessels and the regulation thereof," shall be extended and shall apply in all respects carried in whole or in part by citizens of the United States, and registered, enrolled or licensed within the United States, or any part thereof, or by citizens or residents of the United States, or by any person whatsoever, as master, owner, charterer, shipper, consignee, factor or otherwise, of the whole or any part of any vessel, steamship or steam-vessel, or any tackle, apparel, furniture, and other appurtenances, shall be forfeited to the United States, and shall be liable to be seized, prosecuted and condemned in any of the courts of the United States of the United States for the district where the said ship or vessel, steamship or steam-vessel may be found, seized or carried.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall aid or abet, equip, load or otherwise prepare or who shall proceed to sea on any vessel, as master, mariner, factor, agent, charterer or owner, or any person, steamship or steam-vessel, belonging in whole or in part to citizens of the United States, or registered, enrolled, or licensed within the same, or any part thereof, knowing or intending that the same shall be employed in that trade, or business aforesaid, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, or in any way aiding or assisting therein, shall be severally liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That any citizen or citizens of the United States shall, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, take on board any vessel or receive or transport any such person as aforesaid, with the purpose to hold, sell or dispose of such person as a servant, he or they shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand dollars and be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this act hereinbefore contained shall be deemed or construed to apply to or affect any free and voluntary emigration of any Chinese or Asiatic or to any vessel carrying such person as passenger on board the same: Provided, however, That a permit or certificate shall be prepared and signed by the consul or consular agent of the United States residing at the port from which such vessel may take her departure, containing the name of such person, and setting forth the fact of his voluntary emigration from such port or place which certificate shall be given to the master of such vessel, but the same shall not be given until such consul or consular agent shall be first personally satisfied by or proof produced of the truth of the facts therein contained.
